

Memorial Book

In Loving Memory of

Jeremy John McConnell
(March 8, 1978 - October 2, 2010)

Learn as if you were going to live forever. Live as if you were going to die tomorrow.

Mahatma Gandhi

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest Jeremy McConnell who was born in Michigan on March 8, 1978 and passed away on October 2, 2010. You will live forever in our memories and hearts.

Jeremy you are forever in our hearts.

I created this in remembrance of you! Love your little sister, Jen come on take the picture already!

The background of the entire image is a soft, textured, sepia-toned wash. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. One is a smaller, tighter bud, and the other is a larger, more open flower with visible petals. They are rendered in a slightly darker shade than the background, giving them a subtle, ethereal presence.

Two roses are positioned in the upper right quadrant of the image. They are rendered in a soft, painterly style with muted, earthy tones. The rose on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing its petals. The background is a textured, mottled brown and beige, giving the overall image a vintage, sepia-toned appearance.

Two roses are positioned in the upper right quadrant of the image. The rose on the right is larger and more open, while the one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed. They are set against a mottled, olive-green background that has a fine, grainy texture, resembling aged paper or a watercolor wash.

The background is a textured, mottled brown and beige. In the upper right, there are two roses. One is a smaller, tighter bud, and the other is a larger, more open flower with visible petals. The roses are rendered in a soft, painterly style, blending into the background.

Memories

all the gray you turned into colors...

Nikki

hey big brother, Jessica found some videos you had sent to the girls. It is so great to be able to hear your voice, your laugh, and to see you!! Coral talks to you... ALL THE TIME! we all miss you!! Every time they come to moms there is a white butterfly that comes around, The girls tell us its you.. :) Coral asked you to come to grandmas as a bunny rabbit because she wants to leave you some veggies from the garden... Last night there was a bunny sitting at the corner of the garden when I got home.. I laughed and cried at the same time. I miss you!

Nikki

Today I had a resident tell me he was going to heaven, so I asked him when he got there to say "Hi" to you. He then asks me your name and age so I told him. He said that you were to young to go and that when he gets to heaven he will give you my message. My resident then said lets pray for your brother in heaven as he prayed I cried... when he was done praying he just held my hand and said everything would be okay. I miss you! I want to call you and tell you about sooo much!!! I talk to you often, I know you can hear me. I love you big brother

Mom

I HOPE YOU UNDERSTAND by Joni Greever

I'm tired, so tired of living

Pretending all is well

No one seems to understand

My life's a living hell.

The pain you can't imagine

And there is no escape

It is gnawing, unrelenting

Sealing up my fate

It feels like burning acid

Courses through my veins

Mocking, evil demons

Dance within my brain

Sleep eludes me every night

I dread each coming day

My soul is dying bit by bit

While others laugh and play

Dark, haunting images

Are always at the fore

My reality is hopeless

I can't take it anymore.

People say they love me

But I know it isn't so

Anything worth loving

I am empty of emotions

I have no more to give

All searing, stabbing, choking pain

I've lost the will to live

I wish I didn't have to go

I know you couldn't tell

The blackness that descended

Nothing could dispel

I wanted to be happy

I pleaded, begged, and cried,

But forces kept the light away

And now my soul has died.

I cannot face a future

Filled with emptiness and pain

So I am going where I hope

To find love and joy again.

Hey big brother,

Today as I sat getting my new tattoo...I heard you in my head saying"yeah thats cool" like you always would when I got a new tattoo...the only thing different with this tattoo is it means WAY more to me than anyone knows...I feel like I have a piece of you with me always now. Yes you are always in my heart but now your with me on the outside too. This is just a start of my tattoos for you..I have a few things in mind to add to your hand...little things that remind me of you and always will.

Til we meet again... Missing you always and loving you forever.

Love Mom

To my sister, from heaven.

I just wanted you to know.

That I'll be with you wherever you go.

I've gotten my wings and learned how to fly.

And I'll dry your tears whenever you cry.

Though I've went away and it seems we're apart.

You will forever be my soul and my heart.

The love that we shared will not go astray.

For deep in my heart it will always stay.

You held me close when I was filled with pain.

And your smile gave me sunshine when my life filled with rain.

You guided me when no one else could.

You protected me when no one else would.

We've shared so much that mere words can't express how knowing you has made me feel truly blessed.

So please dear sister, fret not for me, for now my soul is truly free.

So think of me often, as much as you can.

And I'll always be there to hold your hand.

I'll be your angel and guide you through life.

I'll give you comfort through torment and strife.

So thanks dear sister again and again, thank you always for being my sister and my friend.

Jer, where do i begin: these past few days ive thought of u as a small boy teen and a young man , a simple man. You were special we knew that from birth , u struggled these last few months but u didnt let that take you down, until now. we talked daily and we shared our days, this wasnt your first try at suicide , but when we talked you told me suicide wasnt a option, i believed you, and when u said "im tired" and u told me again you were ok and again i believed you, i forgive you jer for the choice you made do i like it NO but now all i can do is ride this journey out until we meet again! your pain must of been so greater than what im feeling for you to do what you done, because if you knew how it would hurt us you wouldnt of done it. your sisters are hurtin please watch over them they need you we all do...please keep us all safe from harms way: Mike , Jen Nik , your 4 children, Deemer and Kinaysha...you said you had the best sisters a guy could want and i know they think alot of you i see you thur them. RIP my only son go fly with the angels and watch over us untill we meet again! Mike misses you, some days hes so mad at you, other days he says he think you are still in chicago, i only hope you knew how much you were loved then and now. RIP u are forever & always in my heart.

I Love You Son

My dear son! I miss you so much It keeps hurting, I can't stop crying My eyes always search for you in the sky Heart longs for finding you in the heaven

My dear son! I love you so much I feel so empty without you I am so scared of my future without you Heart longs for being around you for my safety

My dear son! You are my angel
I still feel that you are caring me from above
I tell my broken heart that you are still watching me Heart longs for your care even from heaven

My dear son! You are my protector
I remember you when I feel lonely I talk to you when I break into pieces Heart longs for your support even from heaven

My dear son! I was thinking I gave you life
The reality is that you had given me life Without you and your presence, I can't exist Heart longs for your company in my heart until I exist Please be there in my heart

I Love You Son!

Nikki (sister)

You leaving us has effected each one of us in a different way. We all miss you, we just show is in different ways.

Vidal and I were talking the other day about when you lived with us and came home late one night and fell asleep on the couch and when we woke up your foot was through the Christmas tree! LOL We were both sooo mad at you but it was soooo funny at the same time! You told us to "just hang something over the hole" I remember the last few Christmas's before you moved to Chicago, you and Mike would make breakfast at mine and Nikki's house.. oh by the way we are having bacon this morning and all I can hear in my head is "you gotta be the animal" "be the bacon" then you would laugh so hard!

Jer please help mom and Jen, they need each other so much but are both so stubborn.

I love and miss you so much!!!!!!!!!!!! Til we meet again!

Mom

God knew that you were suffering that the hills were hard for u to climb. So he gently closed your eyes and whispered , Peace Be Thine. In tears we knew you suffered, we watched u fade away. Our hearts were broken you fought so hard to stay. But when we saw you sleeping so peacefully free of the pain we could not wish you back to suffer that again. It broke our hearts to lose you but you did not go alone, a part of us went you the day God called you home. Forever in our hearts and sadly missed

Nikki (sister)

it's been 2 months today that you finally got it your way you left us here, without a farewell leaving behind just your smell everyone tells me to respect your decision and understand that you fulfilled your mission but they don't understand my pain they don't know how it feels to be stuck under the rain

I wish I could hold you and tell you that I love you I wish I could understand I wish I was there to hold your hand maybe I could have changed your mind the night that you decided to leave and to no longer believe I know you weren't afraid anymore of who would be waiting for you at the door

I finally saw your last letter I was hoping it would make me feel better instead I miss you more and your last words made me swear it made me wish you weren't gone because I don't know for how long I can stay strong it's been 2 months I lost you brother it's been 2 months I lost my other I wish you had given me the chance to take one last glance at your face filled with love before you fly away like a dove rest in peace brother I hope you will no longer suffer I will be waiting for you in

I know you were with me today when that guy asked for a ride. It was so not like me to say yes, but for some reason I did. As I drove him where he needed to go he reminded me a lot of you. The way he looked and talked.

I know you gave me the courage to give him a ride. I see myself being more open to people. Not scared of them. You were helped by people you didnt know and now it is my turn to help people I dont know. I love you big brother and miss you everyday! Please help mom. Jen and I worry about her.

Mom

Your early days as a little boy, my the joy u brought, your hair was so curly how u should of been a girl people would say ...no he,s just my handsome boy with curls ! In headstart u loved riding the bus u felt so grown up Pat Tank was your bus driver we lived in Sandusky Mi rented from Ray & Jeanne Johnson how u loved grandpa ray he called u Jughead, u would go help feed the cows, do anything to just be in the barn and be with granpa ray. Once u had your shoes on the wrong feet and went to barn u came back just a crying..."grandpa sent me back my shoes r wrong" so we fixed the shoe ordeal....u always seemed to have some small ordeal which would just upset u... (thats about the time i knew u were gonna be a special child and need lots of love ,guidance) it didnt matter u were my special child. Jen & u and I were a very tight family we didnt have much but we did have love. Your favorite shirt.....a red cowboy style shirt..U loved it! U loved to explore....once at this age u started the curtains in kitchen on fire! yes i said fire i was in shower Uncle Gil was over visiting and he showed u how to use matches and u just had to explore thank god it was a small fire u got a ass whippin and later u cried and said im sorry momma im gonna be a good boy! How could i ever be mad at u , u had a big heart ever since a small boy. You were my baby and my love was unconditional RIP my son you are free Love Mom

Mom

Jen wants me to tell about the day u were born.....10:34 pm on March 8, 1978 how i couldnt wait for u to be born. I read every book there was on raising a baby... I wanted to be the best mommy u could have. Your feet were so long , we knew u were gonna be tall, little did i know u would be handsome too! When u were born some how the drs broke your collar bone, u wore a brace, u were a little quarterback since day one. 10 months old u were sucking on spaghetti with sauce u loved it, once in your walker u went down a flight of stairs they went to the basement, how i was scared that day grandma habicht took us to er so i could be sure u were ok. My how that first year u kept me going ! I breast fed u and one time at Aunt Sue's house while i was feeding you we had your cousins Stacy Amy Shawnie all feeding their baby dolls, they said they wanted big babys like" U " Oh the fun and love we shared your first year. (ok i will write more tomorrow this is happy times but also sad tears) i love u my son RIP

I always remember a few stories my mom tells about Jer and I growing up. There is the one about Jer ratting me out when I stole gum from D&C discount store, and there is one about Jer getting into my diaper when we shared a crib and he smeared poop all over the walls, he also loved laughing and hiding knowing he was drinking my bottle as I cried ! Jer was a protector in many ways. He walked me to school every morning - picked up the garbage along the way for Mrs. Mater and all the other close by neighbors on our way to the bus stop. He saved and saved to either buy a RAT or SPIDER from the pet store that my mother would cringe at or he would buy her flowers. As we grew up I realized how special he was, and that I would have him tagging along with me through out our lives (which I NEVER EVER minded) He always made me worry though. Our first year in Chicago I followed him MANNYYYYYY nights dressed in a black hoodie and make sure he wasn't getting himself into trouble. I really never wanted him to come to Chicago because I knew he LOVED to explore and I wouldn't know what to do with him to keep him out of trouble. As I keep my eye on him he knew how loved he was. I knew when he was in trouble and I knew when he was doing good, and I knew when he was depressed. We stayed up for nights getting drunk and talking about our "FATHER" who we both knew had disappointed us many times in our lives yet we always allowed him to be forgiven. When I got married Jer said "Jen, what do you want... you want me to walk you down the aisle?" "cuz you know I will". Jer was and still will be the only man in my life I can trust and love with all my heart! We knew each other ... Just about a month and a half ago we were on my deck and he started to cry just explaining how close he and I are. And how neither one of us can explain it but we know and feel something between us no one else will understand or know. He was actually crying. I was soooooo glad to hear him say that because I knew what I felt and how I felt about him but didn't know for sure if he felt and knew the same thing. AND HE DID !!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Amazing feeling.

I could write all day and night about how you Jer ! You were my world and I know you know it !!!! Fly my brother , for you are free.

Walk with God he will protect you thru eternity.

The background of the entire image is a soft, textured, sepia-toned wash. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. One is a smaller, tighter bud, and the other is a larger, more open flower with visible petals. They are rendered in a light, almost ethereal style, blending into the background.
